

Welcome to our new section
Volunteers in Action
Whether volunteers are mentoring individual children, organizing recreational activities at a group home or coordinating fundraisers with their friends or co-workers, every sincere thought and effort to bring joy into our children's lives is invaluable.

A Shout Out to all Our Volunteers for the Great Work They are Doing!

PSEG volunteers take the children to Turtleback Zoo

Volunteers from the Friends of YCS work the alongside children at a residence to create an organic garden

Members from the New Mercy Community Church in Hackensack hosted a BBQ party for all the children at a residence

The student council at the David E. Owens Middle School in New Milford organized a “Wear Your PJs to School Day” and held a talent show to raise money for new pajamas and movie theatre tickets for 40 children at a YCS group home.

Children and volunteers take a break during a soccer clinic organized by Verizon

IKEA volunteers worked for 2 days redecorating the dining area for 35 teens at a YCS residence

Fifth grade students at Richard E. Byrd School in Glen Rock know how much fun it is to go to the movies. So, they decided to hold a fundraiser at their school and raised enough money to send 60 children in residential care to the movies. There was even money left over for some popcorn!

Volunteers take a trip to YCS Summer Camp

Our camp donors, from Children's Place, the Nat'l Council of Jewish Women had a great time interacting with the campers. The children enjoyed this special time and volunteers remembered what it was like being a kid in summer

Fort Lee Education Center has a junior/senior prom thanks to the Bogota/Ridgefield Park Rotary. They host a prom night to remember and donate prom dresses and suits for the students to choose from

What child doesn't like video games and a party? One donor came up with the idea to combine both and rented a video game bus. It was quite a surprise for all the children when the van pulled into the parking lot and everyone got to play their favorite game.
